Local Servicemen Visit East Berlin

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Provost from their son, Ralph Dale Provost, telling them of his trip to West Berlin and the Russian Zone of Germany. Dale and three of his friends from Salt Lake City were invited to West Berlin to be the guests of Cpl. and Mrs. Sherman Davies who are cousins of Dales and are stationed in West Berlin. Cpl. Davies got special permission from the Russian officials to take the party into the Red sector where they did plenty of sight-seeing. They seen the Brandersburg Gate, saw the desolate Reichstag where Hitler lived, crossed to the Unter Den Linden, down Wilhelmstrasse and past the Chancellery, seen the royal palace and the statue of Stalin. Besides many other interesting places, everything in the Red Zone is blacked out at night. The soldiers were watching every move that they made while there. After three days at West Berlin Dale and his friends returned to his post at Hanau just nine miles from Frankfurt where Dale is chief clerk and typist at HQS and Dale will sail for home about the 20th of September to join his wife, parents and family. He says hello to all his friends.
